ZoomGov Appearance by:

1/3/22 - Robin Offner

1/3/22 - Karen King

1/4/22 - Jenny Zhao

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for December 14, 2021:

This action was commenced prepetition in state court by the debtor. The action is not barred by the automatic stay. The counterclaims that the defendant seeks to assert may be barred by the stay, but, if they are compulsory counterclaims (that is, if they arise out of the same set of facts and occurrences), court will grant relief from stay to the extent necessary to permit them to be reduced to judgment at the same time as the debtor's claims. (Enforcement would remain stayed.) Court order will clarify for the benefit of the state court and arbitrator that the rest of the action is not stayed (and that relief from stay has been granted as to the portion that was stayed). (It is unclear why movant has requested annulment. What post-petition actions were taken that movant seeks to validate by annulling the say?)

Discussion in motion about nondischargeable nature of debt is misplaced. With the exception of certain taxes, there is no such thing as a nondischargeable debt in a chapter 11 filed by a nonindividual. (Note the introductory language of section 523 that refers to individuals.)

Debtor represents that it would like to centralize all litigation in one forum. If that is the result that the debtor would like to achieve, why hasn't it removed this action to bankruptcy court?

Final Ruling for December 14, 2021:

Continue hearing to January 4, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. to give the parties an opportunity to chat.

Tentative Ruling for January 4, 2022:

Tentative Ruling from December 14, 2021 remains unchanged. Have the parties had an opportunity to confer? How would debtor like to proceed at this point? Hearing required.
